amendment, they could not. And with all of the back...the bickering and the sniping back and forth among these charitable people, who are all supposed to be doing great things, somebody would blow the whistle and our agreement would be voided. We would not be free to enter an arrangement that we, as mature business people, want to enter into. Everybody knows that when a negotiation occurs, whether it's for a purchase and sale or conditions of work, each side is going to try to get as much as it can for its own benefit. So if two sane people, who under the law are legally empowered or allowed to enter contracts, voluntarily enter a contract where all of the requirements for producing a valid contract are met, why should they not be able to do it? Why in this area of gambling should it be different from other areas? I know why it's different where the car dealers are concerned, because the Legislature thinks somehow that class is supposed to be protected in a way that nobody else is, guaranteed income that nobody else is, compelling every citizen in this state or resident of this state, whether a citizen or not, to have a car delivered by a Nebraska dealer if it's purchased in another state. That's what is going to be done under a bill that's going to be before us later on, on Select File. This amendment should not be accepted. If you don't want to accept my amendment, it doesn't make too much difference whether you do or not, but it makes a great amount of difference if you accept what Senator Quandahl is offering us. It brings about a type of restrictiveness that I don't think ought to be involved. I say that those who get involved in gambling should be left to their own devices, no pun intended. If they are too immature and incapable of protecting their economic interests, then they suffer the consequences that whoever wants to enter any given market will suffer. The punishment goes with the offense. If you're too dumb to look out for your interest, somebody gets from you more than they ought to get for what they're giving you back. That's the way business works in this country. So whether you adopt my amendment or not is really irrelevant, but I think you should.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Janssen, on the Chambers amendment.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Mr. Lieutenant Governor, members of the Legislature. Just want to touch a little bit on charitable
